

Commissioner who shall hold office for a term of four years or until his successor is duly elected and qualified and there shall be elected on the second Wednesday of July, in the year 1916, and on the second Wednesday of July in each and every fourth year thereafter, by the qualified voters of each of wards Nos. 1, 4 and 5, a Commissioner who shall hold office for a term of four years or until his successor is duly elected and qualified. The Supervisor of Elections shall provide the official ballot for such election or elections, the form and arrangement of such ballot to be such as the Commissioners of Cambridge shall by order prescribe except that all candidates for the same office shall be grouped together and the names shall be arranged alphabetically on said ballot. The Supervisor of Elections shall deliver at each polling place on the day of said election to the judges of election before the opening hour, the said registries of voters and a sufficient number of the said official ballots, not less, however, than twice the number of registered voters at each polling place or ward, and one of such ballots shall be handed by the judges of election to the voters as they shall apply for them for the purpose of voting and shall be accepted by the judges or counted in canvassing the vote provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to prevent candidates for the various offices to have sample ballots, to be provided for at their own expense, for instructing the voters. After each name on said ballot and to the right thereof, shall be a square upon which the voter shall make a cross-mark to indicate the candidate of his choice. If any voter cannot read or write, or is disabled by reason of any physical infirmity, he may ask one of the judges of election to mark his ballot as he desires. When a voter offers to vote the judges shall ascertain by reference if his name is on the registry of voters. Provided, however, that in any primary or general election held in the City of Cambridge, voting machines may be used in the same manner as provided for elections held in Dorchester County.

In every election, whether such election be the regular election or any special election, the polls shall be opened at 7 A.M. and closed at [5] 7 P.M. In all elections to ascertain the sense of the qualified voters of the town as to the passage of any ordinance or ordinances the election shall be held by wards and all the polls shall be opened at 7 A.M. and closed at [5] 7 P.M., on the day appointed for such election.

52. Within the 30 days next preceding any primary or any special election, held under this Article, the Supervisor
